The Christmas Star

Family news

Fictional example

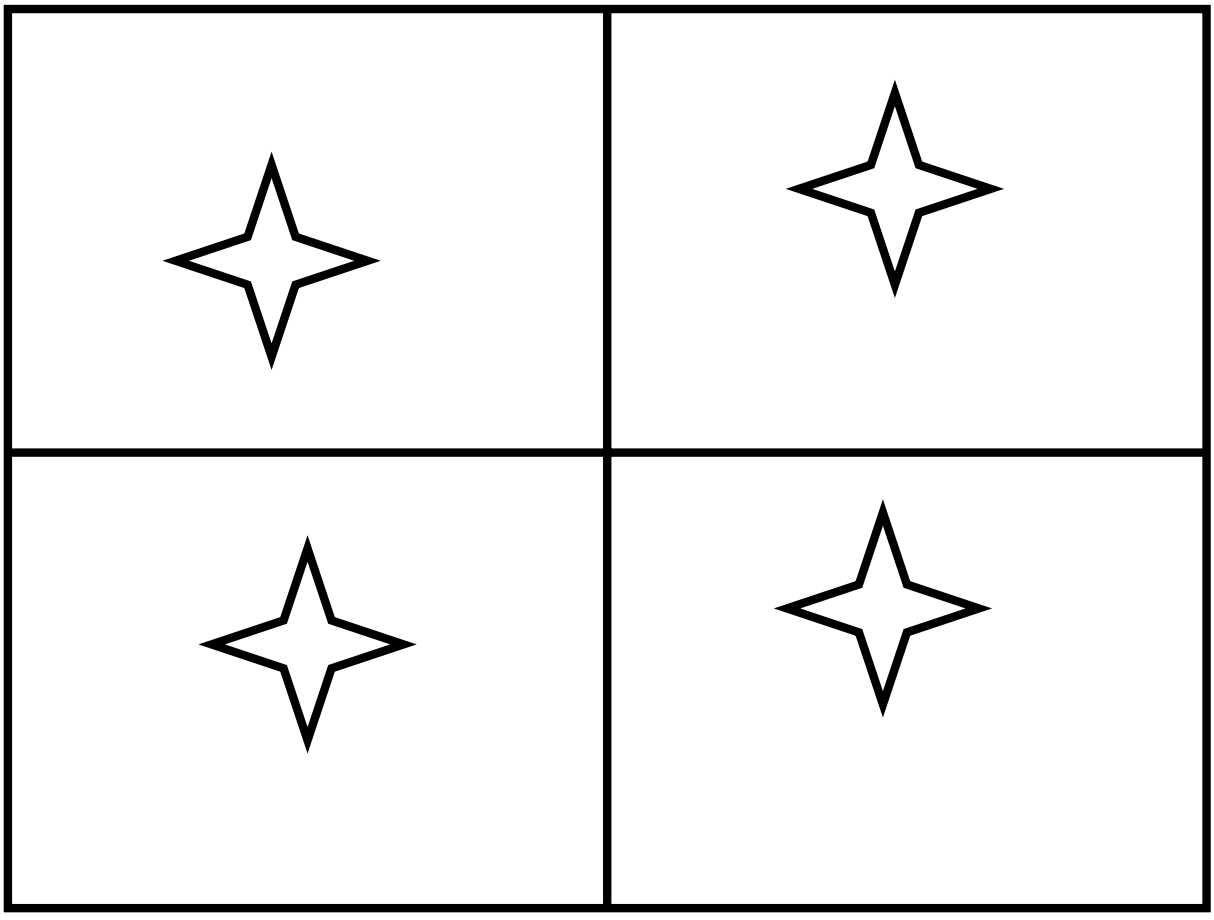

Paper stars brighten the window

On Saturday, the family made paper stars for the window. Maya folded one and Dad hung it beside three more stars. They used paper saved from last year.

A Christmas wish interview

Reporter: What would you like to do or give this Christmas?
Maya: “I want to make a star for Grandma.”

Draw a decoration

Paper stars in the window.